

Redlands Camera Club

Established in 1896

Redlands Camera Club is a group of amateur, serious-amateur, and professional photographers who are interested in sharing experiences and advancing their skills. Anyone with similar interests is encouraged to attend a meeting: no cost or obligation. We meet at 7:00 pm on the first and third Mondays of every month at Redlands United Church of Christ, 168 Bellevue Avenue, Redlands, CA.

RCC LOGO CONTEST -- $100 PRIZE

Interested in making a Hundred Bucks in cold hard cash? Enter and win our Redlands Camera Club logo contest!

The Redlands Camera Club needs a logo to use on this newsletter's masthead, our website, and other places of our choosing. We would like to utilize the creative expertise of our club members to create this logo. It may, or may not, contain actual words, letters, or graphic designs. See our website for complete design specs.

The contest began August 1, 2008 and ends at midnight December 1, 2008.

Only Redlands Camera Club members in good standing are eligible to enter this contest; however, you may join the club at the time you submit an entry.

Our Board Officers will judge the entries and determine the winner. The winner must agree to assign unlimited ownership (copyright) of the winning design to the club; otherwise the design will be returned unused and another winner will be chosen. So do not enter the contest if you are unwilling to relinquish copyright.

The winner and the winning design will be announced at our annual Christmas banquet on the second meeting in December, 2008.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Judith Sparhawk

September! Despite the usual hot September weather in Southern California, this month always begins to make me think of the coming of autumn, of trees turning brilliant colors, and the eventual promise of crisp morning air. OK, it may be my imagination on overdrive, but this month always seems like a new beginning.

New beginnings suggest trying new things, pushing ourselves out of our comfort zones. I know that some articles suggest that photographers “find their style” and then stick with it. That’s how we are supposed to become known and recognized, and maybe even famous someday, right?

I do think it’s great to define and develop our skills in any area in which we are happy and comfortable. I also think it’s important to experiment and try new things, new styles, new subject matter. Love landscapes? Try some close-ups while out there shooting the scenic grandeur. Are portraits your signature? Occasionally look past the people to backgrounds and the environment. Is photojournalism your passion? Try some amazing art photography.

With that in mind, since I’ve never considered myself to be a good landscape photographer, in a few days I will be traveling to Bryce Canyon, which I have not seen since I was nine years old. I figure that in a place as beautiful as Bryce, if I can’t come home with at least one great shot, I might as well toss my camera over the rim and be done with it!

So jump in, try something new; do the Scavenger Hunt; take a class; experiment just for fun; enjoy the changing of the seasons. That’s what life is all about, right?

SEPTEMBER 1ST

Roundtable Discussions: What's on your mind? Let's talk about it.

Our first meeting for September falls on the Labor Day weekend. We have traditionally used this evening for an informal discussion among members on any photo topics. This is a perfect time to ask for advice regarding photo equipment, problem-solve photographic issues, or just share experiences.

It is a good way to get to know club members better, and is always a lot of fun. So if you are in town for the holiday weekend, please come.

SEPTEMBER 14TH

Photographing Eastern Utah: The Moab Field Trip group

For our second meeting of the month, eleven RCC member photographers will present a program of photos take on their southern Utah photo expedition.

All are great photographers and this meeting promises to be an enjoyable evening of beautiful and unique landscapes.

FIELD TRIPS: Annual Scavenger Hunt

Bessie Reece

Save the date, Saturday, September 13 for our annual scavenger hunt. This year we will go to Oak Glen. If you haven't participated in one, our scavenger hunts are great fun. We supply you a list of topics to photograph in the area; you may find all or some of them. The images are shared later at a club meeting. It is always great to see how people interpret the topics. Get out of the box and use your imagination!

We will meet in the parking lot on the north side of Apple Annie's at 38489 Oak Glen Rd. at 8:30 AM on Sept. 13th. That should get us there before the crowds hit. A list of topics, maps, and information about the specifics for lunch will be distributed. You may then go on your own around the village. The current plan is to meet at Apple Annie's for lunch at 1:00 PM.

Riley's Farm at Oak Glen is an interesting place. If you would like more information about it, check out www.rileysfarm.com.

Check back on the Redlands Camera Web Site for updates as the time gets closer.

NEW MEMBERS

Carol Jensen & Steve Burgraff

Eiji Uyehara has been a photographer since high school. He enjoys taking pictures of animals and marine life. He shoots photos at several aquariums in the southern California area.

He is a camera collector and dealer: he buys and sells camera equipment at camera shows. He shoots mostly digital and uses a variety of cameras and lenses.

Eiji is looking forward to entering his images at the next RCC competition.

Bill & Allen Alvord are father and son. They joined RCC together because they both enjoy photography and are turning it into a business. Bill was a photographer in the film days but decided to “get back into it” now that digital is so available. Allan started photography a year ago. They joined RCC because there is a lot of knowledge amongst the members. Both Bill and Allan are taking a photography class by Frank Peele.

They mostly enjoy shooting action sport, including motor racing and martial arts fighting. They hope to sell their images.

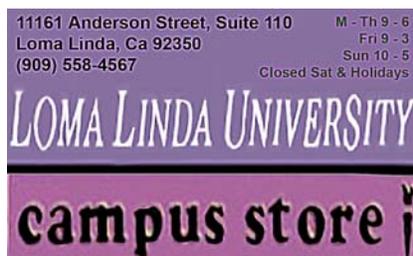

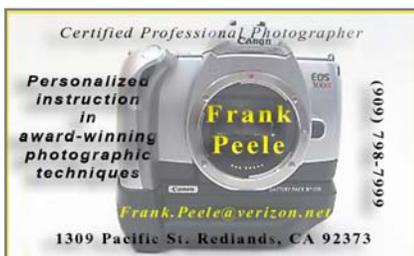

They are using the Olympus E500 camera (they have two of them).

IN MEMORIAM

RCC recently lost a long-time member, Dr. Leslie Rendel-Baker, after a long battle with Parkinson’s Disease. Dr. Rendel-Baker had an illustrious career as an Anesthesiologist, practicing in the field, teaching, writing, and developing innovative techniques and devices for safety in the Anesthesiology field.

His photography was another love, which graced the books and articles he wrote, but was also a creative outlet, as he photographed scenery, buildings, and close-up subjects. Although his health prevented his active RCC participation in recent times, he maintained his membership and enjoyed receiving and reading the Photogram every month.

Our condolences go out to his surviving wife, Rosemary, his children, and grandchildren.
